

6th Annual

SMSU Animation Manifesto ~ Entry Guidelines

Submission deadline: April 4

Extensions may be allowed for works in progress - though roughs must be turned in for judging!

Eligibility

- Student status at the time the animation was created
- Animations do not have to originate from a class

Rules

- Students may enter as many works as they wish
- No length restriction (works may be cut to fit within the allotted time)
- All animations must have a title and complete credits
- All work must have been completed after April 2004 and have not appeared in a previous Manifesto

Submission Guidelines

Animation submissions MUST be accompanied by an entry form

- Animations must be in QuickTime format (.mov) OR on miniDV tape
Frame size, no larger than 720 x 486 (smaller is ok)
- If QuickTime files are submitted, file names MUST begin with the animator's last name, followed by a short title (i.e. "Smith_Weird_Mickey.mov")
- If QuickTime files are submitted, they must be submitted on a CD
CDs must be clearly labeled with animator's name on disk!
- Turn in CDs and entry forms to Vonda Yarberry in room 505. Slide them under her door if locked.

OR mail to:

Animation Manifesto

C/O Vonda Yarberry

SMSU Art & Design

901 S. National

Springfield, Missouri 65804

This is a free juried show. Not all works submitted will be exhibited at the festival. Cash and other prizes will be awarded at the exhibition which begins 7:00 p.m., April 18 at the Plaster Student Union Theater on the SMSU campus, Springfield, Missouri. Admission is free. Animators do not have to be present to win.

For additional information or questions, contact Tracie Watts (tlw353s@smsu.edu) or visit <http://art-design.smsu.edu/manifesto/> .

6th Annual

SMSU Animation Manifesto ~ Entry Form

Submission deadline: April 4

Extensions may be allowed for works in progress - though roughs must be turned in for judging!

Name, Address, Phone Number & Email Address

Title of Animation

Name of File submitted via CD

Date created

Short Synopsis

Signature

Date

By signing this form, you agree that the Animation Manifesto has permission to exhibit this work and use it for publicity purposes.

CDs and miniDV tapes will not be returned.